ZIONIST PICNIC SUNDAY.

A picnic with exceptional opportunities for a good time will be given by the Houston Zionists at Angerhoeffer's Sunday, July 17. The committee has taken great care not to overlook anything that might help make the affair a pleasant one for all who are to participate. Arrangements have been made for providing various kinds of refreshments and dancing. Those who like to indulge in bowling will have a chance to enjoy that sport, too. Some interesting contests are likely to come off on the grounds. That everything arranged may be carried out in the most satisfactory way the picnic committee has enlisted the services of a number of auxiliary committees to co-operate in carrying out the various features of the program. Don't miss the opportunity for enjoying a good time next Sunday.

KAPPA KAPPAS AT GALVESTON.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Kapner entertained the Kappa Kappa boys at their home in Galveston last Sunday.
The crowd left on the 1:30 G. H. & H. arriving in Galveston about 3 p. m.
They were met by Mr. Kapner at the station, and after an hour's spin over the city in an auto, the guests repaired to the house of Mr. and Mrs.

Kapner where a "Dutch lunch" was served. They then enjoyed the pleasures of the beach, and left on the 10:20 train for home. Among those enjoying Mr. and Mrs. Kapner's hospitality were Messrs. Maurice Rosenberg, Mansfield Schwartz, Jake Mesin-ger, Emmich Meyer, Vance Lawrence and E. Johnson.

CHARNEY-VOGLER WEDDING.

A very pretty but quiet wedding was that of Miss Fannie Charney to Mr.
Paul Vogler, which took place Sunday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Charney, 1220 Austin street, Rev. H. B. Leiberman officiating. The affair was strictly private, the immediate family of the contracting parties being present. The young couple have gone to housekeeping at 1814 Washington street, where they will be at home to their friends after August 1. Mr. Vogler is proprietor of the Vogler Bottling Works.

DESERVING OF ENCOURAGEMENT.

Mrs. A. Jacob of 2207 Thomas street, this city, is doing home baking and pastry work and desires a few more patrons. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob are a worthy and deserving couple and their entry into this business was necessitated by a severe accident to Mr.
Jacobs some time ago, incapacitating him for the heavy labor in which he was engaged. Mrs. Jacobs is somewhat of an artist in bread and pastry baking such as the Jewish palate appreciates, and a trial order with them will be a good thing for all concerned.
Drop a postcard to A. Jacob, 2207 Thomas street.

SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF ZION.

Despite the excessive sultriness of the weather last Sunday, a large membership was in attendance at the meeting, which proves that Zionism in Houston is holding its own, as most of the local societies have dispensed with their meetings for the summer months.

After the regular routine work had been transacted an election of officers was held, which resulted as follows: A. S. Weiner, president; A.
Miller, vice-president; Miss Esther Ast, secretary; J. Katz, treasurer. S.
Lomanitz was appointed chairman of the propaganda committee.

GEORGE L. GLASS

STRONGLY ENDORSED.

Of all the candidates for office in the election close at hand, there is none who is better or more favorably known among our readers than Geo.
L. Glass, the candidate for re-election to the office of tax collector. Efficiency in the administration of his office, close personal attention to his duties and his absolutely courteous treatment of all who come to him for information or advice, have gained for him the sobriquet of "The Same Old George." Those of our readers who value these qualifications in a man for the office will vote for him and will take pleasure in doing so, not as a matter of favor but a duty well performed, a duty they owe to the county, the candidate and themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Brands are the proud parents of a son which arrived last Sunday.
We extend heartfelt congratulations.
